CIVICO PROJECT: The Final Meeting

17th and 18th of December 2012

Goals and Agenda_DRAFT

Since the project is approaching the end and all the deliverables have been accomplished, the final partner meeting would not be a moment for taking decisions or planning actions, it would be a moment to stop and think over the 2 years of CIVICO life, to make a brief review of our CIVICO project, to declare the results we have accomplished and to reflect on the lessons learned and good practices implemented into the project.
